Bloomfield Record.

VOL. VIII.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1880.

NO. 370.

the day, so far as we have noticed dated from Newburgh, May 22d, jobbing Tribune and Satanic Herald in the students and of those who are kind the day, so far as we have noticed assisting them, will be warmly second assisting them, will be warmly second assisting them. in the past, has amounted to little or nothing as an occasion for reotic emotion.

ample was edifying to all around sary.

gress in relation to both foreign with these impressive words:

ing of our Constitution; to enable us at all times to root out internal sedition, and to put invasion to that prosperity which His good- sentiment of the like nature. ness has already conferred; and to verify the anticipations of this government being a safeguard to human rights.

liberty and the republic, which addressed Washington with such a dailies," and to defend Mr. Parnell and under the auspices of Washington enjoined upon his proposal, it is plain, that his integcountrymen was the preservation rity was incorruptible, and his love of the public credit and the shun- of his country infinitely superior to ning of a public debt. Upon these any and every personal considerapoints ne warned the people, in tion. After this effort, no further made an address to the pupils and their in it, and his lecture on "Washington and by observed attempt was ever made to induce structors at the opening of the Centre School it, and his lecture on "Washington and by shunning occasions of expense, the father of his country to enter- upon the development of the mind, the im- ed. The hall ought to be filled to overbut by vigorous exertions in time tain a proposition of the like na- portance of education and its results, and in- flowing. of peace to discharge the debts ture." which unavoidable wars may have occasioned, not ungenerously throwing upon posterity the burden which we ourselves ought to city the American relations of Charles events, and by recollection we call them to the charge had been fifty cents or a dollar. bear." While he recommended Stewart Parnell reside, publishes the foll mind by voluntary effort. In children as well The threatening weather, no doubt kept taxes and revenues for means of lowing: payment, it should be noted he never advised funding a debt into bonds—a system manifestly sub-leaders of a dominant party to re- To the Editor of the Tribune ? tain power and patronage by reelecting a President to a third term of office, Washington's words and example bught to appeal, with peexample bught to appeal, with petain power and patronage by reculiar force, to his countrymen at this time. The opening paragraph in his Farewell Address is in these

"FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS:-The period for a new election of a

all, and especially the young, to said doing the devil's work generally. to by Mrs. Meierhoeffer. The new witness is consider well the words of wise This may seem to be plain language.

This may seem to be plain language.

William Crosby, who has made an affidavit that he drove by the farm house at about the time of the sheeting, heard the report of a pisfrom which we have quoted. We only the secular, but religious news tot and mot a man at some distance from the regret not having space to print papers have became so demoralized as to house. Crosby has visited the jail, seen Lamerer word of it. every word of it.

We may also insert here, as an the cry for a "strong government," ing a subscription with his "noble that striking feature of Washing- of $100,000."

THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY.

Next Sunday marks the return of Washington's Bibthday. The Monday following, by a law of our monday following in the following of the following of the following in the following of the following of the following in the following of the following in the following in the following of the following in t State, is designated as a "legal asking him to seize the government holiday"—but the observance of and become a king. His reply, from the editorial columns of the stock- attention to it, hoping that t viving traditions which ought to surprise and astonishment I have taking the thirty pieces of silver; that announcement that the same inspire every American with patri- read with attention, the sentiments he did a "good service" in delivering gave such delightful music on the occa-Let us turn to the memorable in the course of the war has given Certainly, it is a sad fact that the Belials their services, aught to be words of General Lee, in the era- me more painful sensations, than of the big dailies, in discussing the mor- fill the church. There will be in addifion pronounced Dec. 26th, 1799: your information of there being al and social questions of the day, have tion, instrumental music of a high order First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen, he was second to none in the humble and endearing scenes of private life. Pious, just, humane, temperate and sincere; uniform, dignified and commanding; his example was edifying to all around around such information of there being such ideas existing in the army as you have expressed, and I must worse appear the better reason." And it is equally sad that the religious press is to play. Miss Bovee, It might do them good to look at this question from the Golden Rule stations, to add variety to the standpoint. A little more than a hundred years ago, we had a "seditions and musical event of the season."

of his affections exemplarily ten- with the greatest mischiefs that ette came over from France and aided Library Hall on Wednesday Correct throughout, vice can befall my country. If I am Washington in achieving our liberties, tracted a small audience. Mr. Under shuddered in his presence, and virnot deceived in the knowledge of tue always felt his fostering hand;
myself, you could not have found the purity of his private character a person to whom your schemes Trishmen, toe, who fought bravely in the trave effugence, to his public virgave effulgence to his public vir- are more disagreeable. At the Bevolution, and in the later war to save ed so many good qualities in the way of same time, in justice to my feel- the nation. We were glad to have their refined culture, clear enanciation, vivid Two years before his retirement, ings, I must add, that no man pos- services, and had their influence been character delineation, and general acceptances made a speech to Con- sesses a more sincere wish to see used against freedom and in favor of op- complishment as an elecutionist. Our Washington made a speech to Con- sesses a more sincere wish to see used against freedom and in favor of op- complishment as an elecu al way, extend, they shall be em- gratitude, in view of these facts, for any singing greatly pleased the audience. "Let us unite in imploring the Supreme Ruler of nations to spread his holy protection over these United States; to turn the machinations of the wicked to the confirmations of the wicked to the confirmation of the wicked to withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player, and the player, and the player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player, and the player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player, and the player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player, and the player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player, and the player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player, and the player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player, and the player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player of the withhold his sympathies approbation as a skillful player of the withhold his sympathies. Th or posterity, or respect for me, to Ireland must certainly be right in rebell-banish these thoughts from your ing against starvation. And any Ameri-who responded to the appeal for this enmind, and never communicate, as can who sympathizes with the land god tertainment. flight; to perpetuate to our country from yourself or any one else, a policy of Great Britain, and is picusly "I am, sir, etc.,

"GEORGE WASHINGTON." "Truly," says the historian, "an or a Christian. One of the principal safeguards Whatever may have been the mo- an American paper which is not afraid day, and on the ever

Relief for Ireland

The Register, of Bordentown, in which citizen to administer the executive and Herald in maligning and misreprecitizen to administer the executive government of the United States being not far distant, and the time actually arrived when your thoughts must be employed in designating the person who is to be clothed with that important trust, it appears to me proper, especially as it may conduce to a more distinct expression of the public voice, that I should now apprise you of the resolution I have formed, to decline being considered among decline being considered among fraud, ever practiced upon a too creduthe number of those out of whom lous public. The Herald puts up its fn the Melerhoeffer murder trial, at Newark the number of those out of whom the choice is to be made."

If Washington ever said or did anything which, in the estimation of all people, ought to immortalize him as a true patriot and statesman, it was this simple, modest and yet noble relinquishment of ambition and power. We beseech all, and especially the young, to esy, as one of them did last week, that the "generous proprietor" of that Mr. J. B. Pendleton, business manager for appropriate and timely offset to paper "has done good service" by head. Alfred P. Burbank, was in Bloomfield on Wed-

"SIB :- With a mixture of great was not such a bad man, after all, for the musical part of the con dred years ago, we had a "seditions and musical event of the season him, as were the effects of that example lasting. To his equals he was condescending; to his inferiors kind; and to the dear object an address, which to me seems big an address, which to me seems big at the conditionary of the istice done to the army pression, it is probable that our country home favorite, Miss Wes indignant and stern rebuke! We honor the Bordentown Register as Monday, 23d inst. is the on Wednesday morning. His remarks were his Times' will do doubt be well receivcluded some interesting facts showing the great progress that has been made of late years by means of education, science and mechanics. Mr. Bliss's address occupied about half an hour, and he concluded as follows : "By memory we retain the impression of facts and would have purchased tickets if the as in adults, there is naturally and originally versive of liberty and human rights.

At this precarious crisis in our country's history, when it is seri-country's history, when it is seri-country's history, when it is seri-country's proposed by the political country absence from New York, to defend him with the pen when the manual care to contribute the manual care to contribute the country and human rights.

At this precarious crisis in our dailies. In the following letter one of the young ladies finds it necessary to set the young ladies finds it necessary to set the people, and, ously proposed by the political in our opinion, does it most effectually:

Athens, although it numbered 20,000 inhabitation. One person, for instance, could repeat a whole discourse after the total discourse after the training it, and there is on record the case of a newspaper after once reading it. Themistocles could repeat the whole contents of a newspaper after once reading it. Themistocles could repeat the manual of every citizen of the other teachers would be glad to receive small or large sums to be devoted to that object. that he would do anything else she wished him to do.

Will you allow us to state through the medium of your columns that the Maverick National Bank. Boston, has kindly consented to act as treasurer for the Parnell Relief Fund, and that all checks but can explain anything they do not under-FARNY PARNELL. may not have fully considered—to excite atten-The course pursued by the Tribune suggestion and reflection." He urged the teachers to drill and review the scholars constantly and presistently in their lessons, for by gift nesday, and expects to make arrangements for a reappearance of that celebrated artist in a informing the people that Judas Iscariot by all the charitably inclined, as well as you have submitted for my peru-sal. Be assured, sir, no occurrence of "seditious and revolutionary ideas." minster Chapel have kindly volunteered exercised over the "seditious and revo. Our reporter did not consult the calenlutionary ideas" of Parnell, is not dar when announcing the lecture by worthy to be called either an American Chauncey Schaffer. Just Washington's Birthdi people, and the proceeds are to be dewithout any charge. His eloquent oration on the last Fourth of July gave > lar price" fixed for the Underhill entertrinment must have kept away some who

The Bloomfield Amateur Cornet Band Hall on Monday evening next. We be speak for the band, at their proposed concers on the 10th, the liberal patronage

MARRIED.

If you want to impress on the minds of your friends that you

JONES' HATS.

They are Neat, Cheap and Durable. Hats, Caps, Gloves, UMBRELLAS, Etc. As Low as Any Place in the City.

ALL GOODS WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED. We are closing out a small lot of FURS, &c. at very low prices

G. F. JONES & SON,

Corner Orange & Broad Sts., Newark, N. J. Near M. & E. R. R. Depot.

BLOOMFIELD CENTER

BAKER & HUBBELL

and domestic affairs, which closed ers and influence, in a constitutionny. It seems to us the baseness of inburst of spontaneous applause. Her Choice Groceries, Provisions & Fruits.

Plour, Peed, Grain, Hay and Straw. Our NEW PROCESS FLOUR cannot be excelled We keep the Bust Bhanne o be found in market, by the barrel, and in j. t. and t bbl. sacks. Goods Delivered Free

CENTRAL DRY GOODS STORE.

Frazee, Connet & Co,

659 BROAD ST, NEWARK

Good Goods, in Large Variety, at Lowest Prices. The Finest Line of DRESS PARRICS, CLOAKINGS, Brocade and Velvet Trimmings, Fringes, Gimps Lace Neck Wear, Fancy Hosery & Merino Underwear IN THE STATE.

Call and See, or Send for Samples.

HECKEL'S

MARKET

BLOOMFIED, N. J.,

Opposite Intersection of Broad St., and Bloomfield Ave.

The undersigned keeps constantly on hand everything pertain ing to a FIRST CLASS MARKET, and sells at prices causist with the times.

BEEF, LAMB, VEAL, MUTTON

PORK, POULTRY, CORNED MEATS.

HAM, SHOULDERS, BACON, &c.

Vegetables in their Season.

OYSTERS. R. E. HECKEL

'Washignton and His Times."

POPULAR LECTURE BY

Hon. Chauncey Shaffer IN LIBRARY HALL. MONDAY EVE, FEB. 23d

Patriotic Music by the Bl ateaur Cornet Band. TICKETS. -

This Lecture will be given under the

Essex Co NSURANCE C

FOURTH ANNUAL Masquerade Ball

BLOOMFIELD MAENNERCHOI

25 Cents. Monday Evening, Feb. 23,

Raab's Assembly Rooms BLOOMFIELD, N.

TICKETS, Unmasked Couple. Masked, 25 cents Each

Buy of the Manufacturer.

Tables, Dining Chairs and M

CARPETS

A. H. VAN HOBN 73 MARKET ST.,

(Factory 28 Campbell St.)

ENCHNITURE, RTO.

Good Goods for Little Money for Cash GREAT BARGAINS

CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS

FURNITURE.

rice till the 1st of March, Your last

WM. N. BANDALL 728 & 730 Broad Street,

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 per cent, Bloomfield Savings Institutio

J. A. DAVIS. SE.

DENTIST. No. 15 CEDAR STEE

local and Instrumental Music STATE ST., BLOOMPIELD, M. A.

ANNUAL ! TATEMEST

JANUARY 1, 1880.